FREE PRESS vs. LABOR RACKET

Newspaper Guild Petitions President to Cancel BROOM Mailing Permit

How Controlled Press Operates

The San Diego Newspaper Guild held a meeting a week ago Sunday in the Colonial Room of the U. S. Grant Hotel where a resolution was forwarded to them by the CIO, petitioning the President of the U. S. to cancel the second class mailing permit of THE BROOM for being "subversive" to the war effort.

They wrangled over it for an hour and finally it passed with five dissenting votes out of about 30 members present.

The discussion brought out clearly that the socalled subversive activity of the editor of THE BROOM consisted in his persistent opposition to labor rackets, to labor boycotts, picketting, etc. The war effort claim was an excuse on which to get the ear of the President just as the Communists suceeded in the Earl Browder case.

An amendment to include Col. Robert McCormick of the Chicago TRIBUNE and cancel his permit also was turned down on the grounds that MacCormick was too powerful to tackle while de Aryan was a small fellow who could easily be downed. It was admitted that Col. McCormick was by far more outspoken and more "subversive" than de Aryan, but size makes a difference with the CIO Guild.

"MISSING PHOTOGRAPH"

This incident explains the "missing photograph" of the candidate for congress.

You might have seen the announcement in the Union-Tribune of my candidacy for congress. I had given the photograph to Edw. Austin, editor-in-chief, and it was sent to the photographic department where they took a glossy picture of the photograph since the original was more like a dull crayon job. And in the photographic department of the Union-Tribune, the original mysteriously disappeared, it never reached the morgue. When I went in search of it the atmosphere in the department spoke for itself; they claimed they had never seen it.

It is quite evident that when members of the newspaper guild let their personal bias, prejudice and animosities get the upper hand over sane judgment so that they indulge in resolutions to the President to destroy free press and in childish revenge destroy pictures of a candidate to show their littleness and spite, the public cannot expect a true picture of events in the press that is run and edited by such minds. This is demonstrated clearly again by the "canned" or stereotyped editorials appearing in the papers which subscribe to the Scripps service.

From one end of the country to the other I am receiving clippings of the "canned" editorial which repeats the old smear about the "Dirty Little Sheets" and THE BROOM: "It's tone may be judged from its discovery that V (for Victory) actually is a Jewish symbol standing for 'Violence. Vengeance and Sabotage'."

Several hundred daily papers thus spread the smear over the states. Their readers must have imagined that the respective editors had investigated the subject matter and were warning the country. The fact of the matter is that some Newspaper Guild Communist sympathiser or straightout Comunist had written the smear in the central office and then sent it out to all the subscribers of the Scripps service where it was published as a bonafide editorial fooling the readers who don't know the mechanics of the controlled press.

What I said about "V" was copied from the New York SUN and the daily press reports which announced at the time, that "V" was being used by Communists all over France, Holland and Belgium as a rallying sign for sabotage, violence and vengeance against the Nazi regime. But it was the N. Y. SUN who called attention that "V" stood for the rays of the Shekinah, which is the Jewish name of the manifestation of God and I called attention that such use as the Communists were making of it was a sacrilege.

One can see how the Scripps smear perverted the very idea which I presented in my paper and along the same line of misquotation and distortion the whole Communist, "defamation committee" campaign commencing with Jack Tenney and ending with Harold Nathan and the Guild is conceived and carried out.

BUT—"Ain't it queer? . . . that God still rules supreme . . . !"

The People Understand

Those officials who are continually making excuses for rationing by trying to "explain" to the people that they are seeking to ward off inflation, betray a poor opinion of our intelligence.

Everyone understands that it is necessary to conserve our resources for the period of the war. To this end rationing is necessary and price fixing is necessary. If the war lasts long enough, control of practically everything we do may be necessary.

When a war is on we have to fight it under rules made by the enemy. We have to do all the distasteful things the enemy makes it needful for us to do. We must make the sacrifices he is willing to make, and play his game until he is beaten.

What the government is now undertaking is a socialistic economic program. As time goes on, it will become increasingly socialistic. It means surrender, for the duration of the war, of our American way of life. That we may have the liberties we cherish when the war is over, we must submit to regimentation and regulation which, if no enemies were at the door, would be intolerable.

The people are accepting the situation with a minimum of grumbling. A few are trying to reap some advantage from the situation, but they are a miserable minority, and they are willing enough to go along when they find they are expected to get into line. Even the star-eyed dreamers who love to talk and plan for a new Utopia, are now co-operating in the emergency task that is the country's immediate concern.

There is no occasion for trying to deceive the Americans with phoney double-talk about preventing "inflation spirals" and "runaway prices" and "stabilizing wages". The public is well aware of what is contemplated and is ready to do whatever is required. It doesn't have to be pollyfoxed into doing its duty.—S. D. Union.

Tonsils Protection Against Hay Fever, Physician Reports

LOS ANGELES,— Tonsils serve as protection against hay fever and their removal in many instances contributes to the development of the annoying ailment, Dr. A. Dwight Smith told the 66th annual convention of the state Homeopathic medical society.

Smith, president of the society, said: "It has been found that many people develop hay fever within a year after they have their tonsils removed. I have found this true in a number of cases. Tonsils are largely an eliminative organ, and this is a natural place for nature to throw off body poisons.

"When the tonsils are removed, nature uses the next best method of elimination."

Mayer's Understanding

(From LaFollette's "Progressive")

Dear Sirs:

Thank you for the article by Mr. Milton Mayer. The man has an honest-to-God respect for the Lord and for honesty. In the Saturday Evening Post he said that the thing wrong with the Jews was that many of them were apostate Jews.

If that is anti-Semitism, then Rabbi Stephen Wise is an anti-Semite. I have heard Dr. Wise thunder that same message at the congregation in Carnegie Hall on Yom Kippur. And of course the thing wrong with American Christianity is that it does not dare to be Christian in its defiance of self-seeking greed.

Mr. Mayer seems to understand all that. More power to his pen!

Housh and Donnelley on OPA

Well, my sympathies go out to Addison E. Housh, who was appointed San Diego district price administrator and his legal advisor J. A. Donnelley. Both have a lot of work to do for which they will recive little thanks.

During this emergency war period of regulation and regimentation, good sense is indispensible. All the rules are for a purpose; the purpose is to conserve, protect, improve and strenghten. While the machinery of administration is cumbersome and unwieldy, it does not necessarily have to be so. It all depends upon the men and women who run this new burocracy, they can make it destructive or they can make it constructive to fulfill its purpose and aim.

Strawberries last year were in many instances 66% cheaper for the canning trade than they are this year. The March price for preserved strawberries was based on last year's crop, but according to price ceilings this year, canners must sell below cost. That does not preserve food or do anybody any good, for naturally, canners stop preserving and farmers lose in the long run, too.

Similar conditions exist in many hardware lines and other goods where wholesalers raised the price since March to retailers, while retailers must sell at a loss to comply with price ceilings.

It is the duty of adminstrators to speedily investigate and report such instances that the prices may be adjusted to compare with actual conditions and not with burocratic notions that defeat the very purpose of price regulation. The national effort to win the war is not strenghtened by the destruction of individual enterprise and business and the loss of taxpayers.

In the automobile business dealers have been put to too much unnecessary loss, financially and in trade, after devoting a life time to build up their business on which many families depend for a living. The purpose of all these regulations must not be lost sight of. Where rubber and machines are not conserved but are actually lost by preesnt restrictions, the nation as a whole loses also, besides destroying the business of individuals and corporations.

These are the matters which local boards must bring to the attention of Washington headquarters.

Non-Interest Bearing Bonds

My dear Mr de Aryan:

I want to assure you every assistance I can possibly give you in your campaign for Congress on the Money Issue. You are going to find a lot of friends when you get to Washington, although they will be silent. They understand as well as you and I the importance of government monetary issue and control, but they are afraid of the money power. They need a leader, I trust you will become such a leader.

With kindest regards, I am
yours truly,
C. G. BINDERUP,
President, The Constitutional Money League of America.

Common honesty should be more common.

Who Sold Junk to Japan ?

Jack Tenney's legislative investigating committee has been told in San Francisco by Harry Bridges that Mayor Angelo Rossi of that city had ordered scrap iron destined for Italy to be loaded when the longshoremen refused to handle the shipment because it was destined to be turned into shells to kill Ethiopians.

Since Tenney is on the subject of scrap iron and un-Americanism, why place the Ethiopians above Americans? Why does he not come right here to San Diego to find out who sold that scrap iron to the Japs which was used to kill our own men on Bataan and elsewhere?

THE ENEMY

There is no enemy but within,
This enemy is "mortal sin".
The sin to doubt that God's IN me
And worshipped there gives liberty.

The greatest victory is won,
If we can say: "Thy will be done!"
A Caesar, Hitler are but nil
Compared with those who do "God's will".

There is no fear where He can reign,
And we have everything to gain,
If we surrender mind and heart
To Him who's ALL from end to start.

"SIGNS OF THE TIMES"

San Diego, Cal, 2967 B St.
May 24, 1942.

C. Leon de Aryan

A copy of your paper was given me by a neighbor. I see you believe the Bible and God. I have mailed you copies of "The Signs of the Times". Hope you have had time to read them and see that it teaches the truth on Bible subjects. I would be pleased to know if you received the papers and if you are interested in the contents.

I am a woman in my 90th year of age. The Bible is my guide. I desire to see others interested in the truths of God's word. It is perilous to be misguided, means the loss of eternal life.

Sincerely, MRS. W. M. HEALEY.

P. S. My husband was a minister of the Gospel 58 years, has been sleeping in death 9 years.

Events Follow "Script"

Dear Mrs. Healey:

Thanks for your kind letter.

I was wondering who was sending me the "Signs of The Times", I am getting quite a number of magazines and papers, most of them marked by my friends and readers.

You see, I am eating my lunch almost regularly at the Vegetarian Cafeteria where they have the "Signs of the Times" promptly each week on the table, so I am sending your copy to one of my friends out of state who enjoys getting odd sort of magazines and papers.

Those of us who love God and follow His commands can find His marks and the signs of His Providence everywhere, even in the Bible, and so we naturally study and practice; there is no need to fear; everything is taking place according to "script"; let's be careful we don't miss our cue.

Wishing you many more happy years,
Sincerely, C. LEON de ARYAN.

Declared a legal paper of general circulation for the County and City of San Diego, by Superior Court order, January 15, 1932.

Entered as second-class matter March 27, 1931, at the postoffice of San Diego, California, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

False Rubber Shortages Charged

WASHINGTON,— A group of senators, mostly from oil-producing areas, began an organized campaign of opposition to nation-wide gasoline rationing by requesting that hearings be held before any action was taken.

Meanwhile, the house agriculture committee received charges that a "false rubber shortage had been created by "the giant rubber monopolies for their own post-war protection." The witness, Elliot E. Simpson, an independent rubber dealer of New York City, said the big companies have men "planted in key government positions", so that they can dictate rubber polices.

He asserted that the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., the United States Rubber Co., B. F. Goodrich, the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., and the General Tire and Rubber Co. constituted an "economic octopus which has a stranglehold on the American people's rubber needs". He gave the committee a list of 50 employes of big companies who, he said, now hold important government positions. The latter included Arthur Newhall, rubber coordinator of the war production board.

PLANS DISCOURAGED

While Simpson was testifying, Clarence R. Bitting, president of the United States Sugar Corp., told the senate agriculture committee that Stanley Crossland, of the Rubber Reserve Corp., a government official, had discouraged plans made by his company for producing synthetic rubber. He was told, he testified, that the oil companies had the synthetic rubber program "in the bag".

Bitting said his company had developed a process for making rubber substitutes from sweet potatoes and sugar cane, and had prepared plans for producing 80,000 tons annually. Although a plant for the purpose could be built in nine months to a year, he said, it had been unable to get priorities for the steel which would be needed.

OLIVES
GIFFORD'S California Olives

Prey

WASHINGTON,—The fathers and mothers of soldiers in prospective American Expeditionary Forces must reconcile themselves to a long, long separation from their sons. In Washington's military postwar program the kids will not be coming home for several years after we have wrestled the Japs and Nazis to their knees and have made them cry "Uncle"—a man known over here as Sam.

As recently revealed in this column, the United Nations' forces will concentrate on Japan itself after they have downed Hitler. We shall try to kill the heart with our naval and aerial units in the expectation that arteries in Malay, Java, Burma and China will then shrivel up. But, as a matter of fact, an indefinite period may be required for our arms to mop up those outlying guerrillas, as many, many months were consumed in conquering Aguinaldo in the Philippines after the Spanish-American conflict. Our boys will man those clean-up squads.

At least two years may elapse before the peacemakers settle all the racial, economic, geographic and national problems presented by victory. Nobody knows whether permission will be granted to great Britain to regain and exploit the Malaysian states, or to Holland to retain her treasure islands in the Far East, or whether China will be a prey to the system of extraterritorial control. These questions cannot be straightened out overnight. But until they are wrapped up in diplomatic vitamins or moth balls, our youngsters must stand on guard from Dutch Harbor to Calcutta.—Ray Tucker.

MAJORITY RULE—

If the majority should not rule who would be the judge? Where is such a judge to be found? We should all be bound by the majority of the American people; if not, then the minority must control. Would that be right? Would it be just or generous? Assuredly not. I reiterate that the majority should rule. If I adopt a wrong policy, the opportunity for condemnation will occur in four years' time. Then I can be turned out, and a better man with better views put in my place. A. LINCOLN.

BIBLE STUDY

By L. SABIN KENWORTHY, B. S., D. D., LTD.
Instructor of Translators

(From the American Standard Edition of the Revised Bible, 1901.)

THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES
Commonly Called
GENESIS

Chapter One

1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

2 And the earth was waste and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep: and the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

3 And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.

4 And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, one day.

(From the Translation by L. Sabin Kenworthy, B. S., D. D., LL. D., 1934.)

THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES
In Hebrew Called
BERESHIS

Chapter One

1 For wisdom spirits create. Thus the spirituals in pairs and thus the material are being formed.

2 Now the material exists by evolution and involution. And death is in the presence of stagnation. While the chiefest spirit hovers in the presence of these currents.

3 Now said the spirits: "Jesus shall appear". As a light he appears.

4 Spirits are looking at that life which is good. Spirits are distinguishing between life and death.

5 Spirits order life eternal: they call for death's ending. There was coolness and warmth; aeon one.

"STRUGGLE AGAINST THE BONE-HEADDS"

Dear Mr. de Aryan

wanted to direct the questions so that only the testimony they wanted could enter the minds of those Grand Jurymen. I know how time and time again in my testimony he tried to give the wrong impression. Some of the times I was smart enough to see thru it and correct that impression. But say, what is this kind of stuff in America!

I am Genevieve Kerrigan, widow, mother of a fifteen year old daughter who is just now graduating from Junior High School. I have served my communities in Santa Barbara County over the past 20 years as President, Vice-President and Chairman of numerous committees, in Civic clubs, Women's Clubs, D. A. R., Toastmistress, Federation Work, Musical organizations and Town Betterment and what not. I have loved people and lived to be of service to people, and I have never said "No" where I could be of help. And I have been a stepmother to two children, one of whom is now in the Medical Corps in the army. So I am not a fly-by-night.

Now, these tin horn politicians have me indicted, mainly because I know Noble and Jones, and have befriended them when they were ill and needed friends, and since their imprisonment was active in finding them a lawyer to give them the defense every American is entitled to. It doesn't make any difference to me whether I agree with what people say or not, they still are entitled to protection under our Constitution and our Civil Rights. My indictment, I understand, sets forth that I failed to register as a member of a subversive organization.

No. 1. Well, I never was a member of a subversive organization. The so-called Friends of Progress, about which so much guff has been written was not an organization, or club, or association, or camp, or anything in any way. No one ever joined any such thing. The name was coined by Robert Noble to head his advertising placards in front of the Embassy Aud. where he held weekly PUBLIC meetings, and to head the hand bills advertising said meetings. So since I didn't belong to any such organization why should I register? Were you a member of the Friends of Progress because you attended one of their meetings?

No. 2. I took part in a PUBLIC MEETING before the 7th of December, which was open to the public and free for anyone to enter the discussion. It was during one of the "Mock impeachment Trial" meetings which were carried on as an effort to keep America free from foreign entanglements, and out of war. Several million other people in this country wanted us to stay out of war too I understand. At least 12 other people spoke that night too, but I am singled out.

No. 3. I wrote a poem, on the passing of the Status Quo at the time of the fall of Singapore—but not belittleing the Allies for the loss of Singapore, as Friend Babcock reported. It is a silly jingle, but certainly not malicious, and I can't see where it constitutes a crime. The fatal error was this: I showed a collection of my poems to Ellis Jones for criticism. He singled out Status Quo, and because it was on a current event asked to run it in the Little Weekly bulletin he and Noble put out. I said "No, I'm not particularly proud of it". Well anyhow, about a month later it did come out—and there you are. I'm blaming no one, for none thought any serious thing would result, of course. Many newspaper writers have said worse than I ever did, but they get by because they are protected. But now, I am subject to arrest.

I know that on many points you do not agree with Mr. Noble and Mr. Jones, but I know you will agree with this, that I, as a good American woman and mother, should not be kicked around by a bunch of politicians, and imprisoned, as they have imprisoned others on trumped up flimsy charges for weeks and weeks, and never even given those people a hearing, much less a chance to defend themselves. I am a taxpayer, and I am an American, and I am a believer and a DOER of the teachings of Jesus. I was following His adminition in doing "unto others as I would that they should do unto me" when I befriended Noble and Jones, and I am not sorry. I know those men and they are all right. But I am disgusted with our political system that will tromp all over helpless people for their own gain, and feed lies to the public and wreck men and women's lives so that a few stuffed toads can sit in places of power.

Mr. de Aryan, will you please help me if you can. I want to remain in my home, with my daughter and not locked up in some filthy jail—especially while rats and lice go free. This high-handed method is not justice—and it certainly is un-American, and most of all it is super-subversive for it is tearing down our Constitutional form of Govt. and trying to replace that with lies, threats, treachery and terrorism. CAN THIS POSSIBLY BE AMERICA? ! !

If you fall under their system, and I fall under their system, then others will fall, and then comes the end of America the Beautiful, America the Free, America the Land we love. This is the the beginning, and it is far started. Are we going to go under without a struggle?

Believe me when I tell you Robert Noble and Ellis Jones are not guilty of the things they accuse them of. You and they may not agree on your concept of God and Eternity, or with Mr. Kullgren on the horoscope, but they are no seditionists or traitors and they are getting a dirty deal. I know the inside story, and they are being railroaded. Why even Wm Fleet Palmer is going to prosecute them, to make a great name for himself over the nation, unless he realizes by now that their whole case is built up on lies. Everyone is climbing on the band wagon, and lashing these men, and it isn't fair, it isn't right and it is above all un-American. Let's not let it happen! Can't the stupid people see that these men, the same as you, are making a fight for the right of Free Speech. They have committed no crime, the crime is in the distortion of the paid and controlled press, they are the liars and misrepresentators.

True, God is in His Heaven, and He is supreme. He will help us, but We have to put legs on our prayers.

More power to you!
Sincerely yours,
Genevieve Kerrigan.

Comment on Bereshis

By C. Leon de Aryan

The translation presented by Kenworthy makes better sense than the American version.

1. God, being the Infinite, could not possibly engage in ACTION of a finite matter. In other words, God could not become a phenomenon. The truth of it is self-evident. But individual spirits while essentially infinite, may take part in finite manifestation within the limits of the scope. Thus to "express wisdom, spirits engage in creative action".

Anything of a finite nature, naturally expresses only partially the qualities of infinite purpose and thus polarity complements each actor: they appear in pairs; plot and counter plot; villain and hero; impetus and resistance, energy and friction.

2. Note the term "material" in place of earth. Bereshis deals with material universes and systems, not merely with the formation of this infinitesimal planet of ours. In place of "darkness", as contrast to creation, there is DEATH from stagnation, for life means progress and retardation is pain and death.

The notion of blaming everything on "God", or using that term in place of ignorance, by putting the onus on "God" for whatever is incomprehensible to the ignorant mind, is eliminated by presenting the correct hierarchy of the Elohim, the spirits, the creators, the "sons of God", who convene to produce a new system of material existence.

3. In Creation everything "in the beginning" is in CONSCIOUSNESS. Mortals call it in "dreams". And so the creators call forth the HIGHEST and most perfect prototype which is to be the goal of the new creation: Jesus. "As a light HE appears".

4. And that light (intelligence) becomes the standard by which good is differentiated from bad. He who follows the light and incarnates it in his own life and his own material activities, he works FOR life eternal; the opponent produces death or sin, through stagnation.

5. God could not possibly take part in producing finite worlds or establishig order in them. The moment HE were to step out of INFINITUDE to become finite, all consciousness would become extinct. That is impossible. It follows, then, that ORDER is established by the creative spirits themselves in accordance with the wisdom they manifest in covenanting among themselves what the rules of new game are to be. They fix them; they accept them; they materialize them and henceforth are BOUND by it in heaven and in earth. That makes for liberty of choice in the FIRST instance, while those spirits who do not care to participate in the creation of the particular world panorama need not take part and may stay out of it. All those who enter upon the scenes of action are BOUND by the common covenant. Aeon one.

Registration of Women

Should Congressional action be taken making compulsory the registration of women for service either with the armed forces or with war industries, let me urge the necessity for providing civilian service for those women whose consciences do not permit their participation in war," Miss Georgia Harkness, professor of applied theology at Garrett Biblical Institute, Evanston, Ill.— and said to be the only woman teaching theology in a graduate seminary in the United State—has written to President Roosevelt. "The primary reason why church women are impelled to make this request," says Dr. Harkness, "is the supremacy of the Christian conscience. Loyalty to God must be placed before all earthly claims, and without recognition of this fact there can be no true freedom of worship." —W. W. Reid, in HERALD, Hot Springs, N. M.

Is Prohibition Coming?

(From the HERALD, Hot Springs, New Mexico)

We hear much these days about winning the war. Most of it comes, however, from people who are drawing fat salaries. Our people as a whole are vitally interested, none the less, in bringing this horrible war to an early and successful conclusion. No real American can look with equanimity upon a possible Japanese victory, but they are thoroly tired of being propagandized by party minded nitwits.

It has been suggested again and again that the tots give up candy and shows and buy stamps and bonds, and lots and lots of them are doing that, but what have Mom and Dad given up? Liquor and tobacco? The liquor and tobacco bills run into really BIG money! Do Dad and Mom love their country as much as Babe loves hers, or are they only working little babe to save the family face?

America is faced today with the mightiest foreign military forces the world has ever known, with huge, highly financed political machines that are attempting to destroy our national independence and integrity. Our situation is decidedly grave. Make no mistake about that.

Educators tell us that smoking students do not posses the mental accumen of those who do not smoke. That is no truer of students than of adults in every day life. Drinking drivers are today taking a greater toll of human life in this country than war is among our forces abroad. Those killed are far outnumbered by those maimed, many for life? But WILL Dad and Mom give up their booze and tobacco for their love of country? A few here and there, posssibly.

Don't excuse yourself that this would amount to little if you did. Those littles total into HUGE amounts. God looks with particular pleasure upon a sober, industrious people, always. Today we need His help. Will you do it? Will you be so patriotic that you will keep a clear head, a clean mind? That will be no little contribution to the cause of Victory. If ALL would do that Victory would be assured.

The present administration is fully determined to lower the American standard of living. Money is being rapidly withdrawn thru the purchase of stamps and bonds, and this is putting many small businesses out. This is being done, we are told, "to prevent inflation", but those who put it that way do not explain what inflation they refer to. Obviously there is no inflation of money supply and inflation of debt is growing like the proverbial green bay tree.

It should be patent to all that there must be sacrifice somewhere and that it is unavoidable. The sane thing to do is to sacrifice the non-essentials in as far as is humanly possible. Foremost in that category come liquor and tobacco. The latter probably does more injury to the unborn than the former. On the whole we fear the public will give up its boys more cheerfully than it will give up its whisky, beer and tobacco.

That is a sad comment and some may resent it, but we ARE giving up our boys and we are NOT giving up the other things. The clear minds that would result from the total elimination of these things would be worth more to America than the hundreds of millions that could be invested in stamps and bonds as a result. ARE WE THAT HEROIC, THAT PATRIOTIC?

What Constitutes Subversie Membership?

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Good for you in the blasting you gave Babcock and Olney. I'd like to know who is "un-American!" Who more so than that un-American Jack Tenney Committee and the super-snoofing great American gestapo, and the tactics of Babcock, Olney and Warren? The idea of having people arrested and thrown into jail and held for weeks without a hearing, on the say-so of sneaking, cheating, cheap patriots like Mr. Beery, Mr. Hieatt, and a few others of the crawling variety of bug-life. If I was reduced to the status that I had to make my living and prove my patriotism by spying and lying and squealing and building up cock and bull stories about my fellow Americans in order to get in good with the politicians in power to help them build up their political hold, I'd take one look at such a stinking record, eat it and then go and die of the vile disease such rot would engender in me. My contempt for such things is so utter that I consider them worse than slugs, which are beautiful in comparison!

Thank God there are a few hard hitting men like yourself, who know their way around, and are not intimidated by these cheap political patriots. We need men like you to fight for us common people who are so inarticulate.

You will remember me because we sat in the same room for two days while we waited for Beery, Heiatt, McCarthy, Cole and who not to spew their lies before the Grand Jury at Sacramento, to poison the Juries mind, so that when finally people who were honest and could tell them the truth of things, spoke, they were so impregnated with lies and so biased by Mr. Babcock, (the servant of the people) that they couldn't even recognize the truth. You know yourself how Babcock would not permit you to talk off the record, so that you could freely give the grand jury a true and clear picture, even when the Grand Jury asked for such a thing twice. High handed, I'll say, but of course Babcock and Olney

Medics Jail Natural Born Surgeon

MEDICAL LICENSE MORE IMPORTANT THAN SUCCESSFUL RESULTS

CHICO.— An exconvict with uncanny surgical ability, but absolutely no medical training, who "fooled" doctors and patients alike, was jailed because he signed prescriptions only with his initials.

The man who served six jail and penitentiary terms but never set foot inside a medical school, was booked as Arthur Osborne Phillips, 47, alias Dr. James Herman Phillips.

As Dr. Phillips, he was assistant chief surgeon of the Enloe hospital here, the largest in this section of California, where he performed major operations without the assistance of a surgeon.

OPERATIONS SUCCESSFUL

Apparently all of the operations, including appendectomies and other difficult abdominal operations, were successful, said Joseph W. Williams, special agent for the state board of medical examiners, who made the arrest.

Phillips, who came to Chico only two months ago, was earning $250 a month as a hospital doctor and rapidly developing a private practice of his own. Williams said he completely fooled most other Chico doctors, his patients, and army officers with whom he frequently went fishing.

Although he wasn't an army officer, Williams said Phillips invariably wore a military uniform bearing the surgical corps insignia, sometimes wore captain's bars on his shoulders, and described himself as a major in the reserve.

Williams suggested the suave, self-made surgeon learned about operations while serving in penitentiary hospitals. Phillips served time in Atlanta federal penitentiary (two terms), Alabama state prison at Montgomery, Maryland state penitentiary, Idaho state penitentiary, The Tombs, in New York, and the Baltimore and Pittsburgh county jails. Offenses included writing worthless checks, narcotics violations, posing as an officer and practicing medicine without a license.

In the three years since he was released from the Idaho prison, Williams said Phillips was married in Livingston, Mont.; practiced as an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist in Berber, Mon., where he specialized in fitting glasses, and worked for the government as doctor at a CCC camp at Brush Creek, Calif.

Dr. N. T. Enloe, chief surgeon and operator of the Enloe hospital, had a high regard for his assistant and expressed disbelief when Williams began questioning him.

Mass and Purgatory

Dear Sir:

A couple of months ago you commented on the custom of Mass offerings, as being in the nature of a - charge. Thot the answers to these questions might help you should you have occasion to comment in the future.

"Why do you charge for Masses? Is not this the sin of Simon Magus (Acts viii 18-24)? Why do you exact a fixed sum to get people out of Purgatory by your Masses? Does not a rich man thereby have an unjust advantage over a poor man, simply because he leaves a priest money to pray him out of Purgatory?" (taken from "The Question Box" replies to questions received on Missions to Non-Catholics).

"There is no simony in accepting stipends of money for Masses, because St. Thomas says (IIa, IIae, A100 art 2ad 2), the priest accepts them as a payment for his support, but not as the price of his Mass. The canon Law forbids simony, which it defines as a deliberate eagerness to buy or sell for a temporal price anything intrinsically spiritual" (Canon 727). The Church allows a priest to accept stipends for Masses (Canon 824), and condemned Wyclif in the fifteenth century for falsely calling the custom simonaical.

In the primitive Church the faithful offered bread and wine at each Mass they attended, often placing money upon the altar for the use of the clergy and the poor. The practice of giving the priest a money alms for a Mass dates from the seventh or eighth century, and became a universal practice in the twelfth. The Church allows the priest to receive money for but one Mass a day, except on Christmas, and legislates severely against all trading in Masses (Canon 827). If more Masses are asked for than a priest can say, he is bound to send them to priests in poor parishes, where few offerings are made, or to priests on the foreign missions.

The Scriptures prove that by divine law the Church has the right to demand from the people the support of the clergy (Matt x 10; Luke x u, 1 Cor ix 7, 14) But the custom of accepting stipends for Masses is proved only by tradition i e, the Church's approval for the past twelve hundred years. As the divine teacher of Christ's revelation, she cannot make any universal law contrary to the natural or positive divine law.

Non Catholics generally suppose that five hundred Masses have five hundred times the efficacy of one. This is not the case. The value of the Mass is infinite, because Christ is the Minister of the Eucharistic Sacrifice. He delegates the priest to act in His name, and actually performs Himself the sacrificial action in each Mass. But while the merits presented to God in the Mass are infinite, their application to individuals is finite, and only to be measured by the acceptance of God. We know in a general way that God will answer our prayers, but how He will apply the fruit of a particular Mass, we do not pretend to know. The Church at every Mass remembers all her children, living and dead; the particular application of the infinite merits of Christ are known to God alone. The rich in giving alms have no advantage over the poor, for each one is bound to give alms in proportion to his means. If he were to neglect giving alms, he would be in a far worse position than the poor man, who cannot give what de hoes not possess.

And to this question "How do you know that Masses will take souls out of Purgatory: Do you pretend to know the secrets of God?" — The Council of Trent, which voices the teaching of the early Fathers and all the ancient liturgies, Eastern and Western, teach that "the Mass is a propitiatory Sacrifice for the living and the dead, and that the souls in Purgatory are helped by the suffrages of the faithful, but chiefly by the acceptable Sacrifice of the Altar."

Tertullian writes in the beginning of the third century: "We make on one day every year oblations for the dead, as for their birthdays'. Again he writes: "The faithful widow prays for the soul of her husband, and begs for him the interim refreshment, and in the first resurrection companship, and offers on the anniversary of his death."

St. Augustine writes: "Lay," she (St Monica, his mother) says, "this body anywhere; let not the care of it in any way disturb you; this only I ask of you, that you should remember me at the altar of the Lord, wherever you be."

Jap Aims Known Long, Says Webb

YOSEMITE, Calif.,— It took the attack on Pearl Harbor to convince the nation of Japan's character, but Californians were wise to Japanese designs two score years ago, U. S. Webb, former state attorney general, told the California district attorneys' convention here.

Webb recommended that all civil rights of all Japanese—native born as well as American—be suspended for the duration of the war.

Webb, who was California attorney general from 1902 until his retirement two years ago, discussed the 20-year-old California alien land lease and ownership law, directed against alien Japanese.

"The relations between Japan and the United States have been upon our side, conciliation, forbearance and compromise," said Webb.

"On the part of Japan, there was complaint, intended insult and apologies.

"It required a Pearl Harbor to convince Washington what you and I have known for 40 years. We were on the frontier, and knew it was California that Japan had decided to colonize and settle, while four-fifths of the people of the United States had never seen a Japanese 20 years ago."

Another speaker, District Attorney Elmer Heald, of Imperial county, proposed that the alien land law be strengthened.

Press Freedom Held Periled

"To many officials in Washington, the war offers an opportunity to change the entire press of the country into a government news service," Mary Patterson Routt, Washington newspaper correspondent and political commentator, told the Hi Hatters in the San Diego club. .

"News is becoming harder to get," she said. "Every day it becomes more difficult for a newspaper reporter to see even a civil official or to get him on the telephone. More and more we must rely on what is handed out to us."

CONTROL FAVORED

She declared that some officials favor a complete control of the press.

Congress also is awakening to the realization, she said that it has surendered so much of its powers that its prestige with the people has suffered tremendously.

"Congress is our last bulwark of democracy," she declared. "Perhaps we ought to protect congress at this time instead of criticizing it so much. Even with all of its faults, it does remain our greatest representative body and a protection against dictatorship after the war."

COMPLACENCY SCORED

She scored the complacency of Washington officials who fail "to practice what they preach in asking the rest of the country to tighten their belts until its hurts.

"Washington's social life is still one grand and glorious whirl, and I have yet to see any instances of personal sacrifice on the part of any officials."

M. Gorton presided and Lara P. Good was chairman. Philip E. Davis and Forrest Warren were guests of honor.

U. S. Coast Guard Issues Call for 64,000

In the coming year, the United State Coast Guard will train 64,000 men for duty in the Maritime Service. Of these, aproximately 21,000 will become officers, according to word received today by Peter E. Sperati, U. S. Coast Guard, U. S. Maritime Enrolling Officer.

Successful applicants will be enlisted in the Coast Reserve, then assigned duty with the Maritime Service for an initial training period of three months prior to going aboard the various vessels in our great Victory Fleet.

"Opportunity for advancement today is greater than ever before," Sperati emphasized, "a young man being only limited by his own capabilities, and can work up until he becomes the Master of a large liner. Pay and allowances are particularly enticing, for in addition to regular pay, bonuses add to the monthly income."

For over 150 years the Coast Guard has been one of the outstanding services, famous for the seamanship of its personnel, its outstanding part in the Nation's history, both in war and peace. And proud indeed can the young man be who takes as his own motto that of the Coast Guard, "Semper Paratus", (always ready).

Applications can be made at the Coast Guard and Maritime Office, 451 Spreckels Building, San Diego, California.

U. S. Seen as 'Agent of Imperialism'

CLAREMONT,— The American people will be the agents of a post-war imperialism, Maj. Gen. David P. Barrows, professor of political science at the University of California, told the Pomona college graduating class at commencement exercises.

They will be," he added, "reluctant imperialists, probably, but not any less imperialists because our purposes may be just and our final objectives generous."

Gen. Barrows, an alumnus of Pomona college, said the United Nations will win the war but will reap a heritage of hatreds, devastation and misery, destruction of economic accumulations and desires for revenge.

COURT'S DECISION CITES MAGIC OF SUPREME COURT

DENVER,—District Judge Floyd E. Miles, in granting executors of the J. N. Hall estate permission to revive a $39,408 judgement action, took cognizance of a Colorado supreme court ruling in the case by including the following in his written decision:

"But here the magic touch of the supreme court intervened and that which seemed so stalwart and substantial, alas, dissolved as morning mists, leaving the plaintiff to stand baffled and confused like the tentmaker of Arabia who 'came out of the same door as in he went'."

The Money Question

INFLATION, DEFLATION, or REPUDIATION WHICH ?

Inflation reduces the purchasing power of the class who invest in paper, mortgages, bonds and all securities whose income is derived from interest. The class who store dollars for future use, or speculate in dollars, waiting for deflation, that's wrong. It's unfair to the rich, this class constituting about 5,400,000 of our population or about 4% of the people.

Deflation destroys the purchasing and consuming power of labor and the farmer by reducing the price of all their commodities and services below the cost of production, which robs them of their farms and homes and jobs, creating breadlines and soupkitchens, misery, want and poverty. That's wrong to the multitude that make up about 129,600,000,000 of our population or about 96% of the people.

Repudiation is extreme inflation or extreme delation, either one. IN extreme inflatoin debts are paid with cheop dollars, cheap gold, silver, copper, nickel or paper dollars, the material on which money is printed does not alter its function as money, it is only the combined quantity of money as compared with the combined quantity of commodities that determine inflation or deflation.

In extreme deflation debts a repaid with high priced dollars, however most debts are not paid at all, or debts are wiped out by bankruptcies, mortgage foreclousures, sheriff sales of homes, furniture and livestock, robbing the farmer of his farm and the laboring man of his job and home, that results in further misery and want, poverty in the midst of plenty. It empties the schoolhouses and the Churches and fills the prisons and asylums. No nation was ever destroyed by inflation, but the pages of history are filled with Nations destroyed by deflation.

Inflation is by far the least destructive as it only wipes out debts and purchasing power of interest and hoarded dollars while deflation wipes out debts and destroys purchasing power, but also destroys homes and jobs, creates wars that destroys nations and civilization.

Constitutional Money. Government Monetary Issue and Control robs neither class, but establishes a dollar with the same debt-paying and purchasing power now and generations hence. It's fair to every citizen. It drives the Money Changers out of the Temple, and puts Uncle Sam in his place as the Constitution provides.

Thus is there a man or is there a woman, yet is there even a child that does not recognize the necessity for government monetary control.

Pass Binderup's Monetary Control Act now pending in Congress. It has been approved by the monetary authorities of Denmark, Sweden, England, France and Germany, as well as the leading monetary authorities in the United States and Canada.

Devouring Ducks

It is related that a colored man was compelled to borrow at the bank, despite the fact he had just sold his cotton crop. "De ducks ate up all my money," he confessed. "What ducks?" inquired the banker. "Well, Suh, dey de-ducks fo' de haulin', de-ducks fo' de freight, de-ducks fo' de storage an' de-ducks fo' de taxes. Yes, Boss, de-ducks done ruined me."

It would seem that not only farmers but all of us are helpless victims of "deducts". Like Mother Hubbard's cupboard, we have virtually been stripped bare. Now patriotic people are more than willing to make financial sacrifices in order to bring the war to a swift conclusion while resenting the unbridled waste of the taxpayers money by reckless politicians, who are still deluded by the "nutty" notion that "we must spend in order to save".

U. S. Palestine Rule Urged by Wedgwood

LONDON,— The British Broadcasting Corp. asserted that a censorship slip had occured when Baron Wedgewood, Laborite, was allowed to broadcast a speech to America urging that the United States take over Britain's mandate for Palestine.

The broadcast, directed to a New York banquet honoring Dr. Chaim Weizmann, Zionist leader, created a great stir in Zionist circles.

Wedgewood declared the British administration in Palestine "doesn't like Jews" and said "there are enough anti-Semites and crypto-Fascists (secret Fascists) in Britain to back up the Hitler policy and spirit".

WORLD'S NEED

The world needs love, more love and peace
To set our minds and hearts at ease.
And through such peace we'll find the ways
To happier and better days.

Let all the useless now be past,
Our lot is with the future cast.
A future without war or dearth,
But full of happiness and mirth.

Where we are friends with all who live,
And anxious but our best to give,
Instead of taking all we can,
Which makes a devil out of man.

Land Slavery

That people can be enslaved just as effectually by making property of their lands as by making property of their bodies, is a truth that conquerors in all ages have recognized, and that, as society developed, the strong and unscrupulous who desired to live off the labor of others, have been prompt to see. The coarser form of slavery, in which each particular slave is the property of a particular owner, is fitted only to a rude state of society, and with social development entails more and more care, trouble and expense upon the owner. By making property of land instead of the person, much care, supervision and expense are saved proprietors; and though no particular slave is owned by a particular master, yet the one class still appropriates the labor of the other class as before.

Good THOUGHT
Good WORD — Good DEED

DESIRE MADE PURE

When desire is for the purely abstract—when it has lost all trace of tinge of "self"—then it has become pure.

The first step towards this purity is to kill out the desire for the things of matter, since these can only be enjoyed by the separated personality.

The second is to cease from desiring for oneself even such abstractions as power, knowledge, love, happiness, or fame; for they are but selfishness after all.

Life itself teaches these lessons; for all such objects of desire are found Dead Sea fruit in the moment of attainment. This much we learn from experience. Intuitive perception seizes on the positive truth that satisfaction is attainable only in the infinite; the will makes that conviction an actual fact of consciousness, till at last all desire is centerd on the Eternal.

NATIONAL MAGAZINE which has never punched the clock nor even clicked around the Times-Advocate office, has found some doctor in New York whom we never heard of, to come out in rebuttal to Gene Tunney, former prizering champion and now a lieutenant commander in the Navy, in contradiction to Gene's advice against smoking. The doctor referred to, actually advises smoking as a benefit. Doctor or no doctor, we notice that all chimneys, through which smoke passes frequently, have to be swabbed out at intervals because the smoke leaves deposits and coatings which finally obstruct the passage. There is no reason under the sun (now be fair) why smoke would not leave such deposits or coatings in the minute tubing of a human lung, thereby preventing natural function of the lung to some degree. And then somebody advises the habit of smoking as beneficial! The case is quite obvious.

Your last issue was the tops—and we are not surprised at the smear all good thinking, brave men and women of which there are so many, must face.

Each day as I go to holy mass I remember you all as I pray for my soldier sons; that God will bring this war to a speedy end and save civilization. He will take care of you all—you are the first line of defense, we on the second with our prayers; and prayers can accomplish everything.

Carry on, as long as you can, and when I read that you are running for Congress, my heart and that of Mr. K — — — rejoiced — may you win.

God bless and protect you.

I remain as ever, Sincerely yours,
K — — —, Detroit

SALAAM

Forgive my friend forgive ! ! !
We all err while we live,
The best way to correct a fault
Is to admit it frank and bold.

Then talk it over calm,
Say inward your "SALAAM";
Thus soon the war clouds will disperse
And peace come to the Universe.

Send an Honest Man to Congress

de Aryan Opens Congress Race

Outlines Program

C. Leon de Aryan bases his candidacy on an eight-point program:

"1—I shall represent the interests of the taxpapyers against the tax-eaters even though I shall have to commit political suicide, as a tax-eater on the public payroll.

'No Rubber Stamp'

"2—I shall not be a rubber stamp or yes-man for the administration in power, neither will I play politics with national issues.

"3—I shall introduce the newest of new deals, namely, for a change and memorable distinction, I shall keep my oath of office and respect and protect the constitution of the United States, even as it was respected in those horse and buggy days.

"4—I shall not delegate my office to the executive or other politicians and their subordinates, nor peddle my vote for a mess of patronage.

CLASS WAR CITED

"5—I shall work for a revision of the Wagner labor relations act to terminate the class war by giving management equal rights and standing in law with employes. They are all Americans and entitled to the same privileges under the constitution.

"6—I shall introduce measures to the end that taxation shall no longer be used for punitive purposes, depriving citizens of their property in violation of the fifth amendment, 'nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.'

USURY RAPPED

"7—I shall propose measures to free the United States from bondage to usury, by immediately refinancing the outstanding debt at the conclusion of peace, to freeze the national debt, that it may not grow overnight, adding interest and compound interest, by issuance of non-interest bearing bonds as Abraham Lincoln financed the war between the states, which is the only constitutional method of issuing money and determining the value thereof.

C. LEON de ARYAN
